)	Judge: Hon. David F. Levi

This case was originally set for judgment and sentencing on July 14, 2005. Due to her vacation schedule, however, government counsel will not have sufficient time to prepare formal objections to the court, and respond to defendant's sentencing argument prior to the sentencing hearing. Counsel for the government is scheduled to be on annual leave from June 19, through June 12, 2005. Counsel for the defense also has vacation plans from July 25, through August 14, 2005. Accordingly, the parties, including the probation officer assigned to prepare the presentence investigative report in this case, have agreed the briefing schedule relevant to the defendant's sentencing should be extended in order to afford both counsel ample time to prepare written memoranda for the court. The parties, therefore, agree that the final Presentence Report shall be distributed on June 16, 2005. Shortly thereafter, but no later than June 30, 2005, the government will file it's sentencing memorandum and recommendation to the court.¹ The defendant's sentencing memorandum and any defense motions shall be filed no later than July 25, 2005. The government's response, if any, shall be filed no later than August 13, 2005. The defense will have until August 22, 2005 to file any reply and sentencing will take place on September 1, 2005.
